Shifting of Yeswantpur Police Station.

Q.—819. SRI R. MUNISWAMIAH (Bangalore North-Scheduled Castes).—

Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) whether the Police Station at Yeswantpur—Bangalore North Taluk has been housed in a rented building;

(b) whether there is a garden maintained in front of the Station;

(c) the persons whose shops are on either side of the Police Station;

(d) whether this garden does not hide the view of those shops;

(e) whether representations were not made by the shopkeepers that this garden has been a cause for hiding the view and also sustaining loss partly due to this;

(f) whether this Police Station could not be located in either of the last shops in the same building in consideration of providing due privileges to the adjoining shopkeepers?

A.—SRI H. SIDDAVEERAPPA (Minister for Home).—

(a) Yes.

(b) There is no garden, but some flower pots are kept in front of the Station.

(c) There is a tailoring shop of Sri S. Thulasi Rama Rao on one side and a godown of Sri S. J. Ramaiah on the other side of the Police Station.

(d) Does not arise in view of reply to (b) above.

(e) No.

(f) Shifting is not possible. There is a proposal to house the station in a Government building after its construction.
